Mediator Experience	Served as a mediator since 2004 in matters of employment, commercial disputes, and professional services.
Representative Issues Handled as a Mediator	Employment issues mediated have included: race, sex, and age discrimination; wrongful termination; and failure to follow the terms of personnel manuals. Commercial disputes have included generally breach of contract including breach of asset purchase agreements and franchise agreements. Professional service disputes between clients and accounting and law firms.
Mediator Style & Process Preferences	My philosophy is to be proactive in the mediation process. This entails identifying the legal and factual issues; offering observations as to the strengths and weaknesses of those issues; and challenging the parties to think outside the box in fashioning acceptable remedies. It is rare that a settlement does not occur when this is done.
Education	University of Kentucky (JD-1980); Ohio University (BA-1976).
