Mediator Style & Process Preferences	I have been practicing law primarily in Florida's state and federal courts (including appellate courts) for 40 years. My engagements usually involve substantial business disputes involving mid-to-large-cap entities, including Fortune 500 companies, their officers, other executives and board members, as well as high net worth individuals and professionals. My mediation practice blends my ample experience as a commercial litigation attorney where I seek to achieve optimal results quickly and efficiently. In this regard, I offer aggressive evaluative techniques in the mediation conference and a cost-benefit analysis of settling versus the risk and expense of continuing the dispute in court or before an arbitral tribunal.
